Dear Parents/Carers,

We are very pleased to inform you that from today your child will bring home their Home-School Link Planner each evening. The aim is to improve Home-School communication, ensuring you are involved in your child's learning and well-being, valuing you as part of our school family.

Your child should bring this book to school each morning, with the previous night's reading recorded and signed by you as parents. Each Friday, the Learning Conversation homework will be recorded, along with any spellings or additional tasks for your child to complete. As well as this, the book can be used to celebrate achievements and positive behaviours in school.

Alongside this, we have shared with the children this morning our new Behaviour and Rewards Policy, which recognises and promotes good behaviour choices. If your child makes the choice not to follow the school rules, they will be encouraged to amend their behaviour. If on the rare occasion your child continues to not follow our school rules: Ready, Respectful and Safe you will be notified via the Home-School Link Planner.

The full Behaviour and Rewards Policy can be viewed on our school website.

We hope you enjoy using these books as much as we will; they are an incredibly valuable tool in maintaining Home-School communication. If you have any questions or queries, please do ask and we will happily assist you.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Yuen
Executive Headteacher
